ECHO

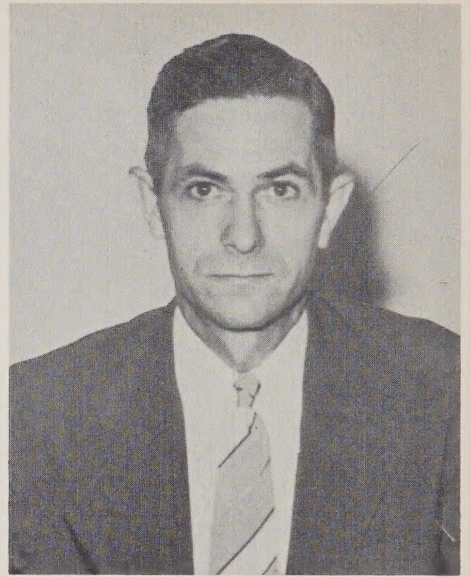

[METHODIST ORPHANAGE]

MRS. MARGUERITTE GILKEY

As a token of our appreciation of her whose loyalty and interests are one with ours, whose friendship is ever genuine, whose sympathy is sincere, whose patience is endless, and whose unstinted service and loyalty are ever an inspiration, we dedicate this annual.

"... AND NOW AT LAST"

We, who have come through four years of high school life, are seniors. Graduation is just around the corner, and we are just beginning to feel that we don't want to turn that corner. But, when we do, we'll leave with the feeling that these have been four worthwhile years, and we hope we've made the most of them.

"... WE'RE GETTING CLOSER"

Only one more year and we, too, will be sophisticated. It doesn't seem as if it has been three years since we were just foolish freshmen, but it has, and we're proud of having "stuck it out". Just give us one more year. We'll show you we can do it too.

"HOUSEWIVES OF TOMORROW"

One of three classes of Home Economics. Under the direction of Miss Mary Ward Shearin, these classes study such topics as meal planning and preparation, clothing, child care, improved housing, family relationships, and improvement of citizenship.

"SCIENTISTS OF TOMORROW"

Chemistry class in action in the science laboratory. Other classes using this well-equipped laboratory, which is under the supervision of Mrs. Irma Holland, are Biology and General Science.

YOU ARE OUR FAVORITE CUSTOMERS

We at Hudson-Belk feel that each of you are part of our big family . . . From the first time you came into the store at the robust age of 6 until you grew to freedom of your buying, we've enjoyed seeing your group come in . . .
you added a bright spot to Hudson-Belk. We congratulate the seniors, and we want you to know you will still be our favorite
